

INSTITUTE
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR
INSTITUTE
SEPTEMBER 19, 1991

USEFUL INFORMATION

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

EVENTS

Voice of Women

Mildred Ryerson would like to invite you to the next meeting of the Voice of Women which will be held on Tuesday, October 1 at 20:30 here at the Institute.

Annual general meeting of CUPTA for part-time faculty

Concordia University Part Time Faculty Association (CUPTA) will be on Monday, September 30 at 15:00 in the Faculty Club Lounge of the Hall Building. Please stay for a wine & Cheese "Welcome Back" party.

Culture and consumption lecture series

Concordia's Departments of Marketing, Sociology and Anthropology, the Visiting Lecturers Committee, and the Ph.D. Humanities have announced a lecture series on "Culture and Consumption". Lectures are free and open to the general public.

A symposium on archaeology

The Department of Classics

presents "A Symposium on Archaeology" Thursday, October 3 from 13h-18h in the Loyola Senate Chamber, 7141 Sherbrooke St. West, room DL-200. Admission is free.

Department of classics presents "wasteland"

A lecture on T.S. Eliot's and Vergil's "Wasteland" will be given by Dr. A.G. McKay on Thursday, September 26 at 18h in the Hall Bldg., Room 769. Admission is free.

Autumn equinox

Pigeon Hill Bruideen invites you to an Autumn Equinox Pot Luck Supper on the Land, Saturday, September 21, 1991. R.S.V.P. at (514) 248-2524. Please consult "social concerns" board.

Invitation de GREMF

La maison d'édition Adage, le Groupe de recherche multidisciplinaire féministe et la Chaire d'étude sur la condition des femmes de l'Université Laval vous invitent à un super lancement le 20 septembre à 17h à l'Atrium du pavillon La Laurentienne, Cité universitaire. Réserver avant le

18 septembre. Voir le babillard
"academic."

Transformative theatre workshops at lacolle centre

The Transformative Theatre workshops will be on Tuesday, October 15 & 16, and on Wednesday, October 16th. These workshops are "for women who are looking for new ways of expressing themselves and of sharing their knowledge in a supportive and stimulating environment." Groups meet from 18:30h-20:30h through December 2. The fee is $240. Contact: Lacolle Centre, 848-4955 or Ann Scofield, 499-0783.

NEWS OF INTEREST

All WSDB professors are asked to have their book orders for the winter session in no later than Friday, October 4. Please provide ISBN numbers; publishers give priority to orders submitted with ISBN numbers. Get your order forms from Linda.

The Walter Klinkhoff Gallery, 1200 Sherbrooke St. W. is having a retrospective exhibition for Montreal painter, Sarah Robertson, from September 7-21. Catalogue essay by Barbara Meadowcroft.

Season Sports passes are available to faculty and staff from the Concordia Recreation and Athletics department for $25.00. Forms are on the bulletin board. Call Linda Corrigan at 3857 for further information.

The Concordia Today information line is a weekly telephone information line. Call # 8632 (English) or 7369 (français) for a brief message outlining Concordia news.

Alumni director Ann Vroom recently clarified a misleading statement by the Concordia Pro-Choice Collective 1991, that implied that the Concordia University MasterCard supported the Alliance for Life Canada, an anti-choice movement. The Concordia MasterCard has "nothing to do with the Alliance for Life Canada, or any other social, political or environmental group."

The National Associate of Women and the Law Charitable Trust for Research and Education has announced the sixth essay competition. "Canadian Feminism: New Directions for the Nineties" is the topic for all students at any recognized Canadian university. Essays of a minimum of 2500 words must be submitted by May 29, 1992. Please refer to the "academic" board for further information.

The Council of Europe's "European Human Rights Prize" will be awarded for the fifth time in 1992. This honorary prize recognizes individuals or groups who have made exceptional contributions to the cause of human rights. Past winners include the Medical Section of Amnesty International, Argentina's President Paul Alfonsin and Lech Walesa. Nominations must be made by December 31, 1991. Please consult the "academic" board.

Madeleine Parent, trade unionist and feminist activist, will speak on "Poor Women: A unique perspective on the struggle for empowerment" on Wednesday, September 18 at 19h in the Hall building, room 763. This event is sponsored by the History Students' Association, the Lesbian Studies Coalition, the Pro-Choice Collective and the Women's Collective.

Feminist Teacher, a non-profit multidisciplinary magazine founded in 1984, is looking for articles that challenge traditional teaching practices, research methodologies, disciplinary canons, and approaches to classroom interactions. The magazine is published three times per year; its subscribers include educators from pre-school to graduate level educators. Contact: Feminist Teacher, Ballantine 442, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, 47405.

The Saidye Bronfman Centre will present Driving Miss Daisy September 25 - October 20, 1991. Call 739-2301 for ticket information.

Women Living Under Muslim Laws have issued an alert for actions after receiving news that the AWSA-Arab Women Solidarity Association was banned by the Egyptian government effective June 15, 1991. You are urged to send strong letters of protest to the Egyptian government.

Le Groupe de travail sur l'accès à l'égalité du Ministère des affaires municipales vient de publier Elues, mairesses ou conseillères. Ce dépliant veut susciter la participation des femmes à la politique municipale. En novembre, des élections se tiendront dans près de 50% des municipalités. Voir le babillard "academic".

Membership forms for the Friends of the Newcomb College Center for Research on Women have been posted.

The Learning Development Office is offering The Busy Professor's Guide to Time Management workshop on Tuesday, September 24 from 13h-16h in the Hall Building, room 769. Cost:

$10. Call 2495 before Friday, September 20.

1992-93 National Faculty Exchange material has been posted on the "academic" board.

Nominations for the board of directors of the Québec Public Interest Research Group are being accepted until September 23. Call Tara at 7585 for information.

CONFERENCES

Canadian voice of women for peace

Voice of Women is coordinating a Study/Research and Consultation Tour to the United Nations in New York City October 30 - November 6, 1991. Reserve before October 1, 1991. A full programme is posted on the "academic" board.

Women and constitutional reform

A two day conference on Women and Constitutional Reform will be held October 25-26 at the Centre for Constitutional Studies, Edmonton. Please call (403) 492-5681 for conference information.

CALL FOR PAPERS

A call for papers has been issued for the 27th annual conference of the Atlantic Association of Sociologists and Anthropologists which will be held March 12-15 at Mount Saint Vincent University. Papers are invited on the theme Minorities: Gender, Age, Ethnic and Economic. Abstracts of papers should be submitted by September 30 (four weeks before SSHRC's deadline for conference funding).

JOBS

CARLETON UNIVERSITY

Department of Religion and the Institute of Women's Studies, a junior tenure-track cross-appointment for July 1, 1992.

Department of Economics, a appointment for a full professor, for the 1992-93 academic year.

Department of Economics, three preliminary appointments at the Assistant, Professor or Lecturer for the 1992-93 academic year.

School of Public Administration, applications at any level for July 1, 1992.

Department of Political Science, tenure-track position in comparative public administration, specializing in development administration and bureaucratic theory.

Department of Sociology and Anthropology, a preliminary tenure-track appointment as assistant professor for July 1, 1992.

Department of Systems and Computer Engineering, Research Chair in Software Performance Engineering.

Department of Political Science, tenure-track in comparative politics.

Department of Political Science, tenure-track in comparative politics with a specialization in East/Central Europe.

Department of English Language and Literature, chair, July 1, 1992.

Department of English Language and Literature, assistant professor, July 1, 1992.